Cowra Regional Art Gallery

The Cowra Regional Art Gallery (CRAG) is a cultural facility of the Cowra Shire Council. The CRAG opened in October 2000 and prides itself as a welcoming, vibrant and progressive public gallery. It offers a dynamic program of exhibitions and public events for the enjoyment of the community and visitors from the region, around Australia and overseas.

The rich Gallery program features in-house curated and touring exhibitions of contemporary art and craft practices and social history projects from major galleries and arts organisation's across the country. The CRAG is also renowned for its annual acquisitive exhibition the Calleen Art Award and youth project upstART an annual exhibition open to senior students from high schools in the region. Public events include a broad range of cultural experiences and creative leisure activities such as openings with guest speakers and workshops for children and adults.

The CRAG has a diverse permanent collection of artwork including paintings, works on paper, ceramics and photographs. This includes the Calleen Collection and Olive Cotton Collection. There is also a heritage collection of works by Italian POWs interned at the Cowra POW Camp during WWII.

The Gallery shop offers visitors a unique range of artist greeting cards including box sets from major Australian art institutions, plus art magazines, art books and local history publications and a range of handcrafted gifts including bags (with marimekko designs), ceramics, textiles and jewellery.

We invite and welcome your involvement and support.
