2009 Regional Student (Youth) Art Exhibition and Awards

On Saturday 28th November, the 6th Annual Exhibition encompassing 130 entries from students in years 10,11,12 from 10 central west high schools, was opened at the Cowra Regional Art Gallery by Dr Peter Wilson Senior Lecturer and Director Creative Arts, Charles Sturt University, Bathurst.

Peter Wilson (pictured at right), spoke on the value of art in promoting the development of numeracy and literacy.

Exhibition Judge, sculptor and artist Ken Hutchinson (at left), was enthusiastic in his praise of the energy emanating from the show. He felt that overall the works were innovative and original, the artists sometimes making very brave attempts to express themselves. The works were well crafted engaging the viewer. Ken also commented on the highly skilled 'photoshop' work demonstrated in some of the works.

Gallery Director Brian Langer expressed appreciation of the co-operation received from the schools and visual art teachers in planning the exhibition and also the local businesses and community organizations who have so generously supported the Awards.

The Calleen Collection 1977 - 2009

On Friday 30th October, Mr Peter Fagan (at right) opened the latest showing of the complete Calleen Collection which is housed in the Cowra Regional Art Gallery.

Peter is the son of Mrs Patricia Fagan OAM who instigated the acquisitive Calleen Art Award which now draws interest Australia wide.

The first acquisition in 1977 is pictured above. This was Thelma Greer's oil Still Life. Since that time, the collection has grown and illustrates the changes in art expression and approach over the years.

Below are some of the people who enjoyed a very pleasant evening reviewing the beautifully hung collection.

Artbank

The Cowra Regional Art Gallery was pleased to have Carrie Kibbler, Assistant Curator, Artbank to present information about the Artbank scheme.

Carrie, who grew up in Cowra, came armed with a lot of explanatory literature for distribution and proved a very knowledgeable and interesting speaker. Artists thinking of submitting their work for possible purchase and inclusion in the program can access the necessary information on the Artbank website.

The Australian Government Art Rental Program was based on a Canadian National Lending scheme, and commenced with an Australian Government grant in 1980 to fund purchases and administration. However since 1992 the Program has been fully self funded with no Government assistance.

Artbank now has 9,750 works including works from emerging artists, established high profile artists, photography and indigenous artists, including 3D works - sculptures/ceramics/wood etc.

They tend to purchase Contemporary works, and quite a number of regional artists are represented - some who also appear in the Calleen collection.

Around 3,000 works are available for rental by individual or corporate bodies at any one time. Most rentals are for about 2 years. Longest rental so far has been one in Melbourne ongoing for 15 years. Some Embassies keep them for a long period also.

Annual rental rates range from $100 to $5,000 depending on the work/artist/size etc. with a minimum 'spend' of $550.

Artbank also curates collections for Dept. of Foreign Affairs and Trade to show at venues overseas.

From the Artbank Website.

"Established in 1980 by the Australian Government as an arts support program, Artbank is the largest buyer of contemporary Australian art in the country. Now part of the Department of Environment, Water, Heritage and the Arts, Artbank promotes Australian culture and the enjoyment of living with Australian art by making the collection available for rent and reinvesting its revenues back in to the collection.

Artbank focuses its support on emerging artists providing access through the collection to the country's most exciting developments in contemporary visual arts."
